"I grew up in a military family. During the 30 years my dad spent in the Navy, we met a lot of wonderful people and lived in some great places along the way. Even though my dad would be gone for long periods, he always came home mentally and physically healthy. Many veterans and their families aren't as fortunate as we were, which is why ARX has chosen to support Wounded Warrior Project as one of our focus organizations.

Help us kick start this campaign, where we will increase our standard contribution to 25% of net revenues on all business committed to ARX between now and December 31, 2018."

*Sincerely,
Derek Brown, CEO and Founding Partner of ARX Management.*
